CUTTERHEAD

A young female journalist is visiting the Copenhagen Metro construction to portray the European cooperation, when an accident occurs. She is trapped in a pressure chamber alongside a Croatian and a Eritrean worker. Despite radically different world-views, they must put their lives and bodies in each other's hands to survive.

"I want it to be a very physical experience. Watching the film should feel like being eaten by the underground."

Director Rasmus Kloster Bro

Rasmus Kloster Bro is a Danish director born in 1985. 'Cutterhead' is Bro's feature film debut. Bro graduated from the director's programme of the independent film school Super16 in 2012 and has previously written and directed a number of short films, radio drama series and art films.

CUTTERHEAD / Suspense / 84 min / Denmark / 2018
Directed by Rasmus Kloster Bro. Produced by Amalie Lyngbo Quist for Beo Starling.
Cast: Christine Sønderis, Samson Semere Russom, Krešimir Miki. Domestic release: Fall 2018

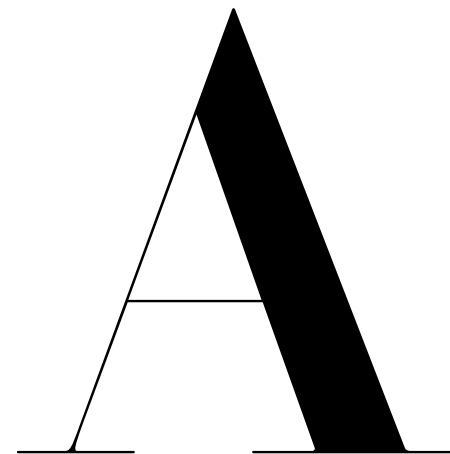

HEAVYTRIP / Comedy / 90 min / Finland / 2018
Directed by Jukka Vidgren & Juuso Laatio. Produced by Kai Nordberg & Kaarle Aho for Making Movies.
Cast: Johannes Holopainen, Minka Kuustonen & Ville Tiihonen. Domestic release: March 9th. 2018 by Scanbox Entertainment.

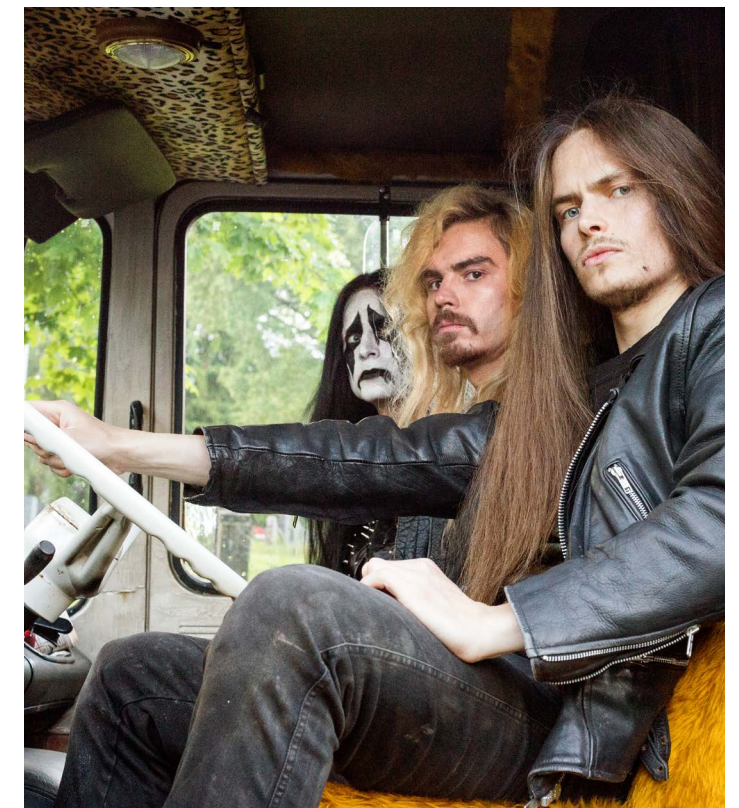

HEAVY TRIP

“The music culture of our time is so fame-orientated, and so much about making money and looking good that these guys just might be the last fortress of genuine, uncompromising artistry.”

Directors Juuso Laatio & Jukka Vidgren

young man is trying to overcome his fears by leading the most unknown heavy metal band in Finland, Impaled Rektum, to the hottest metal festival of Norway. The journey includes heavy metal, grave robbing, Viking heaven and an armed conflict between Finland and Norway.

“The message of this film is, that if you live on the 19th floor and own a cat, you should probably buy a dog instead – because the cat will jump out of the window”

Director Mads Brügger

ST. BERNARD SYNDICATE

ST. BERNARD SYNDICATE / Comedy / 100 min / Denmark / 2018

*Directed by Mads Brügger. Produced by Emilie Lebech Kaae and Jakob Kirstein Høgel for Meta Film.
Cast: Frederik Cilius and Rasmus Bruun. Domestic release: May 10th 2018 by United International Pictures.*

In this cross-cultural black comedy, two awkward European entrepreneurs set out on a business adventure to try and make their fortune in the Chinese Pet industry. When their plan to create a breeding center for St. Bernards doesn't develop as expected, their desperation drives them off course. A hilarious film about misguided ambition and an unlikely friendship forming in adversity.

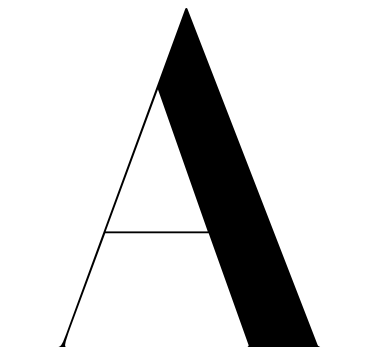

Mads Brügger is a provocative documentarian, who has previously directed “The Ambassador” (Opening film IDFA 2011, Sundance 2011) “The Red Chapel” (Jury Prize Documentary, Sundance 2010). St. Bernard Syndicate is his first feature film.

THE SECOND

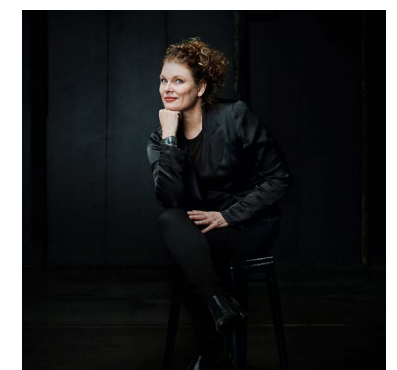

“This is not a film that encourages simplistic judgments; the truth is always duplicitous, and of course, much much stranger than fiction.”

Director Mairi Cameron

n author's success following the release of her celebrated erotic memoir is threatened when her best friend and muse reveals the truth behind the memoir's provenance, igniting an incendiary tale of sex, lies and betrayal.

Mairi Cameron's first short Milk was selected for official competition at Cannes, won prizes at Palm Springs and Bilbao and was pre-selected for an Academy Award. The Second is her first feature film as director.
